FOR MOTHERS.

The period immediately following child-birth is fraught with many dangers. The strength has been used in the painful ordeal through which the mother has passed and she finds herself helpless and weakened. Many mothers, like Mrs. Ford, date the beginning of their illness from the birth of their child. Indeed the frequent spectacle of a healthy young woman becoming a chronic invalid after motherhood is one of the tragedies of life. All this is unnecessary, when Wine of Cardui is obtainable. It rehabilitates the shattered nervous system, strengthens the organs and ligaments, and re-establishes a healthy, natural condition, saving years of chronic sickness and suffering. Wine of Cardui taken just before confinement will render the ordeal comparatively painless. It will re-enforce and strengthen the organs for their work. For every trying crisis in a woman's life, Wine of Cardui is the medicine to take. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui and take no substitute. If one is offered send $1.00 for a bottle to the Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn.

WINE OF CARDUI

Clarkson, Ark., July 20, 1909.

After my baby was born I took the white and falling of the womb, and was in a very dangerous condition. I read one of your home treatment books, and commenced to treat myself with Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught. I am thankful for what the medicine did for me, and I am now in better health than I have been for a long time.

Mrs. MARGARET FORD.

ANTHONY

A painful accident happened last Sunday. Jack Andrews and his sisters, the children of Charles Andrews, attended Sunday school. At the close they started home in a wagon. The horse became frightened and ran down the road. When about opposite E. A. Shealy's the flying team passed Clarence Priest, narrowly missing his buggy. A few feet further the children were all thrown out and bruised considerably. Jack received painful wounds about the face and a cut on the head. He was taken to a physician where his needs were attended to.

St. Valentine's day was observed by a Valentine party at the home of C. C. Priest. All who attended spent a very pleasant evening.

A social gathering took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wesley Smith on Friday night. The evening was spent in social intercourse and games. It was given in honor of Miss Leona White of Moss Bluff, who has since returned home.

Lee Raynor has gone again to take his position on the Plant System.

The truckers want to know if a blizzard is coming. So far the weather has been all that can be desired. The great Seaboard has forgotten, it appears, the dear people to some extent. They fail to notify us of a cold wave as formerly. It is to be hoped they will take this up again.

BELLEVIEW

Since the return of Mrs. Charles Trask from Cincinnati, accompanied by her sister, Miss Annie Marsh, the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. E. White and Mrs. Hough, of Pittsburg, Pa., who are staying at the Seminole, and of Dr. Orlando Mixer and bride, from Worcester, Mass., other winter visitors have arrived.

From Fort Plain, N. Y., come Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Wendell and daughter, Miss Irma, who are occupying their winter residence on West Front street and will spend a while.

With them came Mr. and Mrs. Haviland, and two sons, from Marlborough, N. Y., who make the Wendell mansion their home.

From Gloversville, N. Y., comes Alfred Nellis. He is in winter quarters at the Seminole.

Mrs. E. R. Abbott is at home again in her Haven of Rest on Calvin street.

Earl S. Gardner, of Pittsburg, Pa., has bought the Dana Park, bounded by Third and Fourth streets and Dunn and Earl avenues. He is having it cleared preparatory to having a residence built.

The fire engines have arrived. We learn that Mr. D. E. Stroble, who has been very sick with pneumonia, is slowly improving.

The cold wave, which caused some anxiety to orange growers, modified its temperature to 32 degrees this morning (Thursday).

Mr. Geo. McClure, of Pittsburg, the owner of some nice property here, left today in company with the Messrs. Gardner for their northern homes. They will stop over at Washington to witness the inaugural ceremonies.

Mr. Alfred Nellis, of Gloversville, N. Y., will erect a nice cottage on his tract of land here in town.

Rev. M. Kiecklittler of Pittsburg recently arrived from that city to visit his mother and sister, Miss Alice, who are pleasantly domiciled at the residence of the late Professor Bush on West Front street.

Mr. Frank Wendall of Fort Plain, N. Y., is the star huntsman of this place, with Mr. Alfred Wellis of Gloversville, N. Y., as a good second. Their trips for game are always rewarded by well filled game bags, which they generously divide with their friends.

For farmers and others who wish a model fence that is absolute protection against hogs, goats and cattle, we would advise them to visit the plantations of Messrs. Ridge and Gale here.

Judge L. L. Hopkins has purchased a herd of Berkshire and Poland China hogs and contemplates raising hams in combination with orange growing. We expect the Ocala Cold Storage Co. will find a good patron in the future in the judge.

Mr. John Scribner, the affable clerk of Mr. C. T. Trask, is a recent purchaser of a large block of land. John will improve the same by building a neat cottage and will plant an orange grove with up to date protection for it. As John is a strong and ambitious young man we feel constrained to say that in the future his place will be the pride of our town.

Mr. E. W. White and wife and Miss Hough, a sister of Mrs. White's, are boarding at the Seminole.

The recent arrivals at the Seminole Hotel are: Alfred Nellis, Gloversville, N. Y.; R. Hendricks, Ocala; M. Stapleton, Ocala; D. S. Greenbaum, Savannah; P. A. Frost, Candler; F. D. Waite, Manatee; W. R. Stakely, St. Augustine; E. J. Buck, Philadelphia.

SPRING PARK

Hon. J. C. French, who is quite seriously afflicted with a rodent ulcer upon his face, and also a hard cold and cough, is getting along as well as can be expected, and his many friends extend their sympathy and hope for his speedy recovery.

W. C. Martin spent a few days at Rev. J. Lee's in Ocala last week.

The Misses Lanten, from Duluth, Minn., arrived last week and are stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Yingst.

W. C. Martin is making preparation to leave for the West and has sold his home place to Mrs. Yingst's father, from Michigan, and his vineyard near Ocala to Rev. J. Lee.

Mr. Yingst's father has bought the fine fruit farm of Mrs. S. S. Hall. H. C. Packham has bought the Dr. Sill farm adjoining the D. W. Clarke place.

There was a sacred song service at the home of Hon. J. C. French Sunday afternoon.

The annual New England supper to be given by the members of the L. V. I. S., at their hall Friday evening, March 1, will be up to its usual standard and it is hoped that their friends from this and the surrounding towns will join them as in days gone by. The doors will be open at 6 o'clock and the supper to be served at 6:30 p. m., after which there will be a short musical and literary program, followed by dancing. Tickets for admission and supper only 25 cents. Come one, come all.

Notwithstanding the uncertain state of the weather, there was a good attendance at the L. V. I. S. hall Monday evening and all those present seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent. The first part of the evening was devoted to musical selections upon the piano by Miss Laura Churchill, readings by Mr. J. Pratt and Mrs. Chas. E. French, after which the young people "tipped the light fantastic" to violin music rendered by Mr. Newman of Silver Springs, for which he has the thanks of those present. The beautiful selections on the piano by Mrs. W. T. Frierson of Ocala were much enjoyed by all. Anthony, Ocala and Silver Springs were largely represented and take it all in all, this second social was a pronounced success.

ORANGE SPRINGS

The public school closed at this place Friday. The term was entirely satisfactory and successful from the standpoint of attendance and work. There will be a vacation of two weeks, and then the normal school will open for a term of twelve weeks. The indications are favorable for a successful term.
